

HIGH GEAR

Rotary Club of Burlingame

July 19, 2010

Dave Vaughn, Editor

THE YEAR OF THE "Z"

President Dennis Zell continues the YEAR OF THE Z without a bell. Jim Shypertt led the pledge. And Basil Emery gave an inspirational invocation which blessed us all. All must be healthy as there was no sunshine report – Hurrah.

VISITORS

Dick Gregory introduced Kitty Lopez. Carol Bullock from Burlingame South was introduced by Fritz Brauner. Marc Friedman introduced us to Paula Romeo, a Rotarian based in Madrid Spain. Paula is a Rotary exchange student.

Karen Malekos-Smith introduced us to Senator Yee's assistant, Dan Lieberman.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Our meeting on August 9, will be held at our Art in Park partner, the Steelhead Brewing Company, 333 California Drive. No afternoon appointments!!

The President's Club rolls on. Last week Dave Carr bit the bullet even though there was no Senior Discount. Paul Nieberding followed suit, and Steve Dworetzky claims his contribution is in the mail. Mike Heffernan took the leap. Joe Dimaio and Walt Ramseur closed out the week. Bob Davidson joined Duffy's Club by donating $150 to Rotary but is not claiming to be in the President's Club. His IOU for a $25 fine incurred last week was considered non-binding by a unanimous vote of the Club. Rumor has it Mike Horwitz joined at the Board meeting.

This week after some subtle arm twisting Lage Andersen, Barry Parker, Mike Harvey, Perry Paraskevas, and Rosalie O'Mahony joined President Z's Club.

Yes, Mike Harvey came with his laptop to announce the winner of the Golden Nugget Invitational Poker Tournament in Vegas. Yes, our own Perry Paraskevas.

And guess who won the Lucky Chances International Poker Tournament the following night (?), Mike. What happens in Vegas, stays in Vegas. Mike is still suffering from the strong right arm of Ted K's riffled shots ( rolls).
